

‘LOLA ESAN

‘Lola is an Organisation Design specialist, whose professional background spans, media and advocacy, strategic human resources management and management consulting from different sectors in Mexico, Switzerland, United Kingdom and Nigeria.

She holds a Master’s degree in International Management from Queen Mary, University, London, a first degree in Communication and Language Arts from the University of Ibadan as the MCIPM, PRINCE2 and GPHR Certifications.

In the course of her career, she has worked extensively in the areas of organisation design and development, culture and change management, Human Resources planning, psychometric and managerial proficiency assessments, compensation and benefits planning for a wide array of clients within the public and private sectors.

Lola started her formal career as a media officer in the World Health Organisation, Switzerland. She has also previously worked within the HR consulting practices of a Big 4 firm, Phillips Consulting Limited including a stint as Head, Human Capital of Cornerstone Insurance Plc.

Today, Lola practices her trade as the Partner, in charge of the Workforce Advisory Services Practice of Ernst & Young (EY) West Africa.