

Voted the Diversity and Inclusion Champion for Anheuser-Busch InBev West Africa BU in 2021, Manufacturing and Logistics expert Michael Odutayo is an award-winning multifaceted business leader and career coach. With a background in Leadership and Engineering, his expertise and experience spans over several industries including Manufacturing, Logistics, and Human Resources. Michael worked his way up from an entry-level position to earn his seat at the Exec Table as a Director. Michael is the People Director for the West African Business Unit of International Breweries PLC, a subsidiary of the World Largest Brewer ABInBev. He is passionate about creating and implementing simplified and innovative solutions to elevate organizational performance while maintaining an uncompromising focus on bottom-line profit improvements.

